INNOVATION

Training Within Industry (TWI) Job Relations (JR) Open Enrolment Program

OVERVIEW

Job Relations (JR) is the Training Within Industry module that teaches organizational leaders to build a solid, positive and enduring relationship between themselves and each employee. This relationship is based on trust, communication, mutual respect, care and concern, which builds and maintains a positive culture in the organization. This culture then becomes the foundation for Lean, engaging employees in a culture that embraces continuous improvement and teamwork. This training can be taken in-person or online remote facilitated.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Give participants the full experience of Job Relations so that their organizations can make an informed decision on a full in-house program
- Learn how to apply the four foundations for good relations for building positive relationships on a daily basis
- Learn how to deal positively with personnel problems by utilizing the “four-step problem solving” methodology
